

SDAI Phase 2 – funded projects

Behavioural characteristics of cyber-criminals in online trading

Professor Brian Francis, Lancaster University

Email: b.francis@lancaster.ac.uk

Understanding quality of life and wellbeing of older people - Case studies of China, India, Pakistan and Bangladesh

Professor Asghar Zaidi, University of Southampton

Email: asghar.zaidi@soton.ac.uk

Alcohol misuse in the military: Should veterans' healthcare services focus on the longer-term physical, rather than mental, consequences of deployment?

Dr Laura Goodwin, King's College London

Email: laura.goodwin@kcl.ac.uk

Transportation and the socio-spatial dimensions of travel to work flows

Mr Richard Kingston, University of Manchester

Email: richard.kingston@manchester.ac.uk

'Troubled families' and inter-agency collaboration: Lessons from historical comparative analysis

Professor Val Gillies, Goldsmiths College

Email: v.gillies@gold.ac.uk

Disability, care and participation: secondary analysis of the Life Opportunities Survey and the 2009/10 Survey of Carers in Households

Professor Gillian Parker, University of York

Email: gmp501@york.ac.uk

Examining the reach and effectiveness of cycle training in schools using the Millennium Cohort Study

Dr Anna Goodman, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

Email: anna.goodman@lshtm.ac.uk

Inciting dialogue and disruption - developing participatory analysis of the experience of living with dementia and dementia care

Professor Charlotte Clarke, University of Edinburgh

Email: charlotte.clarke@ed.ac.uk

Population change and geographic inequalities in the UK, 1971-2011

Dr Christopher Lloyd, University of Liverpool

Email: c.d.lloyd@liverpool.ac.uk

Secondary analysis of qualitative video health experience interviews to inform policy and practice - what matters most to users about quality of care?

Dr Louise Locock, University of Oxford

Email: louise.locock@phc.ox.ac.uk

Utilising adoption-based research designs to examine the interplay between family relationship processes and child developmental outcomes

Professor Gordon Harold, University of Sussex

Email: g.harold@sussex.ac.uk

Evaluation, revision and extension of ethnic population projections – NewETHPOP

Professor Philip Rees, University of Leeds

Email: p.h.rees@leeds.ac.uk

Productivity and the allocation of capital following the great recession

Miss Helen Miller, Institute for Fiscal Studies

Email: helen_m@ifs.org.uk

Total reward, the great recession and the proposed public sector pension reforms: Evidence from the public vs private sectors in the UK

Professor Peter Dolton, University of Sussex

Email: peter.dolton@sussex.ac.uk

The analysis of names from the 2011 Census of Population

Professor Paul Longley, University College London

Email: p.longley@ucl.ac.uk

Defining Mass Observation: using mixed-methods longitudinal analysis to increase knowledge of the Mass Observation Project's volunteer writers

Dr Rose Lindsey, University of Southampton

Email: r.lindsey@soton.ac.uk

Understanding the causes of school drop-out in Malawi

Professor Judith Glynn, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

Email: judith.glynn@lshtm.ac.uk

Explaining and sustaining the decline in stranger, acquaintance and domestic violence

Professor Andromachi Tseloni, Loughborough University

Email: a.tseloni@lboro.ac.uk

Hidden depths: A detailed study of rape crisis data

Professor Liz Kelly, London Metropolitan University

Email: l.kelly@londonmet.ac.uk

Making wellbeing count for policy: Patterns and trends in personal, social and societal wellbeing in Europe and the UK

Dr Eric Harrison, City University London

Email: eric.harrison.2@city.ac.uk

Addressing critical barriers to control of non-communicable disease (NCD) in low, middle and high income countries

Professor Martin McKee, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
Email: martin.mckee@lshtm.ac.uk