

Transformative Research Call 2013: applications recommended for funding

The Commissioning Panel recommended funding of 13 grants, which all have a maximum limit of £250,000 (100 per cent fEC) and run for 18 months.

- Understanding cognition in middle adulthood
Jane Raymond, University of Birmingham
- Neurogenetics and differential susceptibility to criminogenic social environments:
How do young people develop and express crime propensities?
Kyle Treiber, University of Cambridge
- Randomly selected "politicians": Transforming democracy in the post-conflict context
John Garry, Queen's University of Belfast
- Where do I stand? Assessing children's understanding of law as an empowering force in their lives
Dawn Watkins, University of Leicester
- Urban dynamics in a complex world: The spatial dynamics of housing
Jonathan Halket, Institute for Fiscal Studies
- Citizen led forensics: DNA and data-banking as technologies of disruption - a novel way to learn and intervene in the search for the disappeared in Mexico
Ernesto Schwartz-Marin, Durham University
- Picturing the social: transforming our understanding of images in social media and Big Data research
Farida Vis, University of Sheffield
- Understanding and optimising health-related press releases as complex public health interventions
Petroc Sumner, Cardiff University
- Synchronous movement cooperation and the performing arts
Guido Orgs, Brunel University
- Interrogating the dashboard: data, indicators and decision-making
Nathaniel Tkacz, University of Warwick
- Beelines
Rebecca Marsland, University of Edinburgh
- Making liveable lives: rethinking social exclusion
Kath Browne, University of Brighton

- Rethinking child protection strategy: evaluating research findings and numeric data to challenge whether current intervention strategy is justified
Lauren Devine, University of the West of England