

Sharing government administrative data: new research opportunities

Wellcome Trust, Gibbs Building, 215 Euston Road, NW1 2BE

Monday 14 July 2014

Tea and coffee from 09.30

Welcome and introduction (10.10-10.30)

- a) Welcome and Introduction to the aims of the event: Paul Boyle, ESRC
- b) The Administrative Data Taskforce and its recommendations: Peter Elias, ESRC

Session 1 – the ADRN infrastructure (10.30–11.20)

- a) The ADRN – progress and plans: Melanie Wright, Administrative Data Service
 - b) Training and accreditation: Mark Elliot, Administrative Data Service
 - c) The role of governance: David Hand, ADRN Board
 - d) ADRN public engagement and communications: Melanie Wright, Administrative Data Service
- Response and questions

Session 2 – the legal landscape (11.20-12.00)

- a) Proposed UK legislation: Rufus Rottenberg, Cabinet Office
 - b) Proposed EU Data protection regulation: Beth Thompson, Wellcome Trust
 - c) Care.data: Geraint Lewis, NHS
- Response and questions

Session 3 – the stakeholders (12.00-12.35)

- a) Reflections from HMRC: Jonathan Athrow
- b) Reflections from DWP: Joanna Littlechild
- c) Reflections from the Scottish Government: Sara Grainger

Session 4 – what next? (12.35-13.30)

What more is there to do? How can we make it happen?

Open plenary discussion

Conclusions and next steps

Lunch – 13.30-14.00